

Important Notice Effective October 1, 2008

2008 Driver License Handbook Insert

Term Changes (Pages 10 and 11):

For U.S. Citizens and Immigrants with Permanent Legal Presence

- Class E driver licenses for customers under age 80 will be valid for 8 years. Class E licenses for customers 80 and older will be valid for 6 years.
- Commercial Driver Licenses (CDL), Class A, B, or C, will be valid for 8 years except for customers 80 and older. Licenses with a hazardous materials endorsement will be valid for 4 years.
- ID cards for children 5 through 14 years of age will be valid for 4 years. ID cards for customers 15 and older will be valid for 8 years.

Fee Changes (Page 12):

- |                      |         |
|----------------------|---------|
| • Class E (original) | $27.00 |
| • Class E (renewal)  | $20.00 |
| • CDL (original)     | $67.00 |
| • CDL (renewal)      | $67.00 |
| • ID Card (original) | $10.00 |
| • Endorsements       | $ 7.00 |

New Documentation Requirements:

In addition to the documentation listed on Page 6, you must also present proof of your social security number (for example, social security card or any of the following documents showing your social security number: tax return, W-2 form, property tax statement, pay check, DD-214, school record)

All passports, permanent resident cards, and employment authorization cards presented as proof of identification or legal presence must be valid. Expired documents will not be accepted.

Please note that we will no longer accept driver licenses or identification cards issued by other states as primary identification.

For a complete listing of the 2008 legislative changes, visit www.flhsmv.gov.